

Are You Winning The Mental Game Of Golf?

Master The Mental Game In This Powerful Hands-on Workshop

Winning The Mental Game Of Golf™

Peak Performance Strategies for Golf, Business and Life

You know how mental the game of golf is. One day you can't miss, and the next? You crash and burn. In business, as in golf, consistent high-end performance, on demand, is what wins. Winners know how to win because they have a system for managing their mind. They have a method for focusing, dealing with setbacks, controlling emotions, preparing mentally, handling mental warfare, thinking like a champion, and finding a way to win when there seems to be no way to win.

This in-depth program takes you to the inner reaches of the mental game-where you learn how to ignite your inherent mental powers to raise the level of your game-on command. The secret to mastering your mental powers is knowing how to enter the zone, that magical world where great golf is played. You will directly experience numerous approaches to this mind mastery throughout this program that you can begin using immediately.

You will learn to build hands-on tools, methods and insights from the mental game of golf, and then transfer that wisdom to the corporate world. In learning the secrets of high-performance golf psychology, you'll improve your golf, your business effectiveness, and your life. Here are the powerful benefits you'll receive from this fascinating and practical program:

- The ability to build sustainable peak performance-on command
- A self-driven inner motivation to always find a way to succeed
- A consistent ability to perform in the upper ranges of your abilities
- A system for raising the level of your game under pressure
- A method for successfully creating a lifetime self-coaching system

Winning The Mental Game Of Golf is for corporations, associations and organizations who want to use golf as a business tool, or who want to reward key employees, vendors and customers with an entertaining, yet powerfully-transforming experience they can use in both their professional and personal lives. The focus of the program can be to learn peak performance concepts and principles and/or to be a team-building experience.

Available as a breakfast, luncheon or dinner keynote speech, or as a half-day or full day interactive workshop, Winning The Mental Game Of Golf is perfect for corporate outings, sports banquets, resort-based incentive programs, charity-benefit golf tournaments, or sales meetings. It can also be customized for recreational players and coaches who want to improve their mental approach to golf.
